Short description of the Scrovegni Chapel

The Scrovegni Chapel, a masterpiece in the history of painting in Italy and Europe in the 14th century, is considered to be the most complete series of frescoes executed by Giotto in his mature age.

Colour and light, poetry and pathos, man and God.

The sense of nature and history, humanity and faith are mingled in narrating the stories of the Virgin Mary and Christ in a unique way; Giotto completed the frescoes in the Chapel at the beginning of 1305.

At that time: "...the chapel presents very simple architecture: a rectangular hall with a barrel vault, an elegant gothic triple lancet window on the façade, tall, narrow windows on the southern wall, and a polygonal apse, later raised to contain the belfry".

The frescoes follow three main themes :

- episodes in the lives of Joachim and Anna
- episodes in the Virgin Mary's life
- episodes recounting Christ's life and death

the visit to the chapel MUST be booked at least the day before at this link
